

The Work of the Holy Spirit in Prayer

Wednesday Study in Theology
Oceanside United Reformed Church

October 7—An Exposition of Zechariah 12:10

Chapter 1 (251–254)

- I. The Relation of the Holy Spirit's Work to Prayer
 - A. General Work

 - B. Particular Work
 - 1. As Seen in the Light of Nature

 - 2. As Seen in the Light of Scripture

- II. The Relation of this Discourse to Controversy
 - A. A Controversy of the Last Days

 - B. A Controversy of Central Importance

 - C. A Controversy in Need of Clarity

Chapter 2 (254–265)

- III. The Manner of the Spirit's Administration
 - A.

 - B.

- IV. The Recipients of the Spirit's Administration
 - A.
 - 1.

 - 2.

 - 3.

 - B.

V. The Qualifications of the Spirit's Administration

A.

1.

2.

3.

B.

1.

2.

VI. An Objection

VII. A Response

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.a.

6.b.

VIII. Conclusion

"That God hath promised under the New Testament to give unto believers, in a plentiful manner or measure, the Spirit of grace and supplications, or his own Holy Spirit, enabling them to pray according to his mind and will" (264).